SUNDAY, JULY 18, 2010

9:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M. BONUS SESSION. Special Pre-Conference Session: Table Top Exercises: Train-the-Trainer, Dennis Lewis, President of Edu-Safe. A former school security director and nationally known school security expert, Mr. Lewis has crossed the country preparing schools for a crisis. Tabletop exercises provide the optimum learning environment, in a stress free atmosphere, for all levels of school staff to enhance problem solving skills for responding to various types of emergencies. This workshop is designed as a train-the-trainer activity and it includes a demonstration of the facilitation method suggested for use with tabletop exercises including opportunities for participants to practice the technique. This session will pay dividends for years to come.

1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. Special Executives' Session (by invitation only). Our most senior Board members continue their work with the most senior of the conference attendees. As they have for the past three years, NASSLEO leaders from Philadelphia, Los Angeles, and other cities large and small, steer this group through frank discussions on the challenges facing school police chiefs, security directors, principals, superintendents, board members, etc. See what others are doing across the US and Canada about their executive-level problems. Bring your issues, and address them with other executives face-to-face. Share quality time with many of our most talented, creative, and experienced leaders. This Special Sunday session was overwhelmingly requested by the chiefs who attended the 2009 Conference in New Orleans. There is no other forum with this makeup in North America.

1:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. Early conference registration.

4:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. Meet your conference sponsors, the Board of Directors, exhibitors, and other attendees at the NASSLEO Hospitality Suite.

8:30 A.M. to 9:30 A.M. Opening Ceremony: Welcoming remarks by the Conference Hosts, James Ream, President of the Los Angeles School Police Officer Association, and Jeff Crawford, Deputy Chief of the Los Angeles School Police Department, and members of the Welcoming Committee for the City of Los Angeles. Introduction of the Conference Sponsor: Mr. Greg Goedeke of Raptor Technologies.

9:30 A.M. to 10:00 A.M. Networking Break/Vendor Display. See the newest services and products available.

10:00 A.M. to 10:45 A.M. Keynote Speaker, Dr. Peter Langman: Author of "Why Kids Kill: Inside of the Minds of School Shooters!" After a decade long study into school shooters, Dr. Langman wrote this book to chronicle his findings. He has looked into the minds of those involved in mass school shootings, to include the Columbine and Virginia Tech killers. Hear Dr. Langman discuss the mental illness and defective personalities of school shooters, and what can be done to address the problem. Learn what "attack related behavior" is and how to identify it before tragedy strikes.

10:45 A.M. to 11:05 A.M. Networking Break/Vendor Displays.

11:05 A.M. to 11:50 A.M. Why Kids Kill, Dr. Peter Langman, Continued.

11:50 P.M. to 1:15 P.M. Lunch. Special Guest Speaker: Mr. Kevin B. Jennings, Assistant Deputy Secretary of Education, Director of the Office of Safe and Drug Free Schools, United States Department of Education. See and hear the direction the Obama Administration is taking to help keep American schools safe.

1:15 P.M. to 2:00 P.M. Plenary Session: The Fort Hood Shootings, John Dye, Safety Director for the Killeen Texas School District. On November 5, 2009, Army Major Nidal Malik Hasan allegedly shot and killed 13 people and injured 30 more in the Soldier Readiness Center at Fort Hood, Texas. The Killeen Independent School District (KISD) supports 50 campuses, and 9 of them are on Fort Hood. The KISD School Safety Director, John Dye, will discuss the impact and ramifications of that day, subsequent days, and the on-going affects felt yet today. Learn how a crisis occurring near your school can impact your students, staff, and your entire school community.

2:00 P.M. to 2:20 P.M. Networking Break/Vendor Displays.

2:20 P.M. to 3:00 P.M. Plenary Session: Director John Dye and the Ft. Hood Shootings, Continued.

3:15 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. Track A: Managing and Planning for Security and Safety Outside the Traditional Classroom Setting, Dennis Lewis, President of Edu-Safe. Students of all ages periodically participate in activities or events that take them out of the traditional classroom setting. These activities include lunch periods, assemblies, athletic events, and off-campus excursions that may be out of town, out of state, or out of the country. This workshop will provide attendees with common sense strategies to help minimize the risk for tragedy, while presenting the necessary knowledge to respond effectively when a crisis develops outside the classroom.

Track B: The Psychological Challenges for Youth and the Link to School Safety, Linda M. Kanan, PhD, Director of the Colorado School Safety Resource Center. This session will present some of the psychological and behavioral challenges for today's youth. The presenter, a former school psychologist, will help you gain awareness and understanding of best practices in "psychological safety" and how they are linked in an essential way with providing physical safety in schools. Hear more about the understated part of school security.

4:00 P.M. to 4:30 P.M. General Membership Meeting and Election of Officers for 2011-2012. NASSLEO has a vacancy for Director of Region II - the Northeast section of the United States plus other Board Officer positions. If you are from West Virginia up to Maine, and a member of the organization, you are eligible to join our board. We are looking for a few good men and women to help direct this growing International Organization of over 1,800 members in 32 U.S. States and Canada.

6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. President's Award Dinner Reception. Each year NASSLEO awards cash scholarships to deserving high school seniors from across the United States and Canada. Also, members of the organization are recognized for their outstanding contributions to their schools, communities, or to NASSLEO. The Chairman of the Scholarship Committee and Regional Director for Canada, Mr. Minaz Jivraj, will present the scholarships. Presenting the Past-Presidents' Award to a deserving California student is former NASSLEO Executive Director, Mr. Eugene (Red) McAllister of Homestead, Florida. Tickets for this event are $30 per person and can be purchased at the Conference Registration Desk BEFORE 10:00 A.M. Monday. Conference attendee guests and families are invited.

To conclude the President's Reception, the winners of the 2 Gift Certificates for 4 free nights in Waikiki Hawaii will be announced. The Wilshire Grand Hotel has generously donated two (2) Gift Certificates for a total of four (4) Complementary Room Nights each at the Waikiki Resort in Hawaii (reservation based on availability and valid up to December 31, 2010). (All registered conference attendees are eligible to win. Attendees need not be present to win the Certificates).

TUESDAY, JULY 20, 2010

7:30 A.M. to 8:30 A.M. Continental Breakfast.

8:30 A.M. to 9:30 A.M. New Decade, New Problems, New Leadership Solutions, Andrew Harvey.

It is a privilege to lead others, and learning to lead is a life-long journey. The author of “LEADERSHIP: Texas Hold ‘em Style” and “A Call to Lead” will discuss the ways in which people can become better leaders in both their careers and their lives, through a combination of perspective, reflection, and knowledge. The author's 25-year career in law enforcement is used as the foundation to help others enhance their leadership skills. This session will focus on actual skills and approaches leaders can use; all based on common sense, logic, and concern for people. This is real-life leadership experience provided by someone who has road-tested his approach within the unique field of policing. In or out of law enforcement, this former police captain turned college professor, is impressive.

9:30 A.M. to 10:00 A.M. Networking Break/Vendor Displays.

10:00 A.M. to 10:45 A.M. Andrew Harvey, New Leadership Solutions, Continued.

1:00 P.M. to 2:00 P.M. Plenary Session: The 2010 Legal Update for School Security, Law Enforcement and Administrators, Mr. Gary Avery, JD, Legal Advisor to NASSLEO and member of the Law Advisory Group. As a former prosecutor, author, and long-time legal expert specializing in school security, Gary uses his entertaining and effective delivery to address some of the more challenging laws and policies affecting those responsible for school security. This session will help take the fear out of doing business each day for school administrators, law enforcement officers and school security personnel. Gary’s annual session has been the highest rated in our attendee surveys for several years and he is sure to please again.

2:00 P.M. to 2:30 P.M. Networking Break/Vendor Displays.

2:30 P.M. to 3:15 P.M. Track A: The Gangs of Los Angeles. Los Angeles County Deputy District Attorney Dan Akemon and Gang Specialist, Los Angeles Police Officer Anthony Smith. During this session the speakers present an overview of the existing gang problem in Los Angeles, and the measures being taken to combat this decades old problem that has involved some families for several generations. Both speakers have years of experience investigating and prosecuting some of the most dangerous gang members in California. The presenters will show that there are strategies and tactics that work in reducing the influence of gangs in America.

Track B: The Internet: The High-Tech Tool for Leaders, Raymond Foster, Los Angeles Police Lieutenant (retired). By not fully comprehending the language and capabilities of Internet-based tools, today’s leaders may not see how their organization's website can be fully integrated into their current organizational practices or integrated into their vision of the future. This session gives leaders an entry into the language and capabilities of Internet-based tools so they can integrate their vision; converse with subordinates; and, maximize their Internet-based resources. Co-Author of “LEADERSHIP: Texas Hold ‘em Style,” this professor and radio talk show host brings a unique and interesting perspective to an issue few school leaders have fully embraced and/or have fully understood. Learn about this underutilized tool for the contemporary leader’s tool box.
