

CHIEF IAN A. MOFFETT
MIAMI-DADE SCHOOLS POLICE DEPARTMENT

Chief Ian A. Moffett has over 23 years of law enforcement experience. He is currently employed by the Miami-Dade School Board as the Chief of Police and District Security for Miami-Dade Schools Police Department, the seventh largest law enforcement agency in the county with more than 192 sworn personnel, serving the fourth largest school district in the United States. Chief Moffett has worked and trained with numerous agencies regarding responding to critical incidents and has given countless workshops in the area of Youth Violence, Gang Awareness, School Safety, Weapons of Mass Destruction, Emergency Management, and tactical training.

Chief Moffett is a member of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Region 7 Domestic Security Task Force, and serves on several school safety and juvenile boards within the South Florida Community. He is currently the President of the National Association of School Safety and Law Enforcement Officials (NASSLEO) and a Subject Matter Expert for the United States Department of Education on issues related to emergency management in schools. Chief Moffett holds a Master's of Science Degree from the University of Cincinnati, and a Bachelors of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Florida International University. He is currently an Adjunct Professor at Florida International University, Department of Criminal Justice, Southern New Hampshire University, and Union Institute and University. Chief Moffett is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute Command Officers Development Course #55 and the Federal Bureau of Investigations National Academy Class #262.