

Timothy L. Mallory, Sr.
Director of Public Safety
Tidewater Community College

EXPERIENCE:

Mr. Mallory has over thirty years of combined experience in school security, law enforcement and legal services. Mr. Mallory currently serves as the Director of Public Safety for Tidewater Community College and has served in this capacity since September 2017. Mr. Mallory has previously served as the Chief of Safety and Security for Richmond Public Schools, Richmond, VA, Security Manager for Chesterfield County Schools in Virginia and Senior Coordinator for Security Services, for Norfolk Public Schools, Norfolk, VA. Mr. Mallory was formerly a police officer with the City of Norfolk for 13 years and served the city of Suffolk, Virginia as an Auxiliary Police Officer. He served his country for 7 years in the U.S. Air Force.

Mr. Mallory currently serves as the Vice President of NASSLEO. He has coordinated special projects with the Department of Education and the Virginia Center for School Safety. He has served as the Southeast Regional Director for the National Association of School Safety and Law Enforcement Officials He has served as the Project Director for the Secure Our Schools Grant and the Readiness and Emergency Management Grant (REMS). He has lectured at various conferences and has been asked to participate in local talk shows related to youth culture, community policing, school safety, and relationship building.

EDUCATION:

Mr. Mallory has earned an Associate Degree from the University of Maine, Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice from Saint Leo University and a Master's Degree in Educational Management from Regent University.